May 6-7th, 2010 8:30 am-4:30 pm

NEW GRANT WRITERS AND FUNDRAISERS!

Are you interested in starting a Non Profit Organization to support your people and your work?

Are you interested in developing skills to raise funds for your project?

Wonder how you can successfully raise funds from private foundations?

Want to learn how to develop a winning grant proposal?

Attend this Native specific, hands-on training to develop the skills and contacts needed to get your project funded! The class includes a grant program workbook, group discussions, native networking and presentations from experienced Native fundraisers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Native students, Tribal staff, artists, and Tribal non-profits working on a project in need of funding like Youth projects, canoe journey, elder programs, cultural programs and many others!

Participants are strongly encouraged to attend both days, come on time, and to complete the Pre- and Post Learning Goals to ensure we “move forward together as a learning community”.

COST: $20 TRIBAL MEMBERS/STUDENTS

OR $35 NON PROFIT/ TRIBAL EMPLOYEES

**LIMITED SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE (PLEASE INQUIRE)

Trainers: Ken Gordon and Heather Miller, Potlatch Fund

Space is limited. Food will be provided.

To register please fill out the form and email it to:

heather@potlatchfund.org

Please call Heather Miller (206.624.6076) for more details.

Each participating organization is eligible to apply for a $500 mini grant!
