Potlatch Fund's Eight Annual Gala
Saturday, November 20, 2010
Grand Hyatt Seattle
Networking Reception from 5:30PM
Dinner with Program from 7PM

The Potlatch Fund Gala is a community event that builds upon the giving tradition of the potlatch by bringing together Tribal and grassroots Native leaders, foundation and corporate representatives, our generous donors and others. Our Gala is a unique opportunity to enjoy and learn about Native Culture, have fun and support our important work Potlatch Fund undertakes throughout Northwest Indian Country.

This year's event will include:

- Master of Ceremonies: Gene Tagaban (Tlingit), back for an encore performance.
- Cultural performances.
- Presentation of the Philanthropists of the Year Awards.
- Presentation of Leadership Awards to Northwest Native Leaders.

Proceeds from the Potlatch Fund Gala directly support Northwest Indian Country in the form of technical assistance and grants to Native Artists, Native nonprofits (501-c-3), Tribes and Tribal nonprofits (7871):

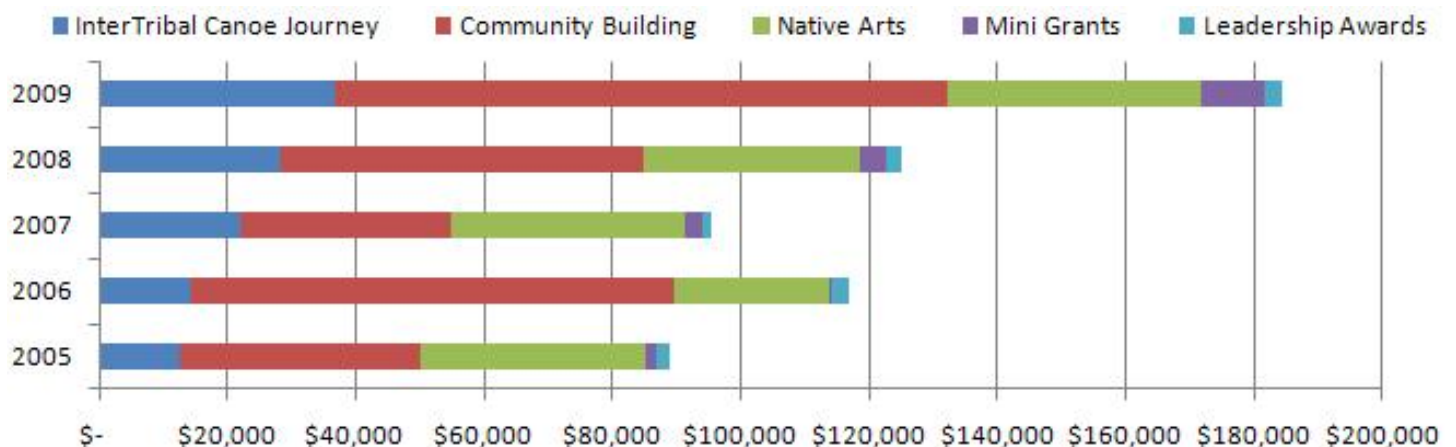

Technical Assistance

- Journey to Successful Fundraising
- Introduction to Financial Management
- Nonprofit Startup
- Social Media & Media Management
- Governance Training

Grant Cycles

- InterTribal Canoe Journey
- Community Building
- Native Arts
- Cedar Tree Fund (to commence in 2010)
- Mini Grants
- Leadership Awards

Giving back and honoring the tradition of community is at the heart of our work. Through December 2009, Potlatch Fund awarded more than $600,000 in grants to Native individuals, communities, and identities.
