Under the 2015 Spring Grant Cycles 42 grants, totaling $152,420, were awarded in the areas of

- » Community Building
- » Native Arts
- » Language Preservation and Education

Grants were awarded in Washington, Oregon, Montana, and Idaho; the four states the comprise our service region. Learn more about our grantees by clicking the posters above or visiting the grants section of our website.

The grantees are Tribes, organizations, and artists who may be familiar to you. They are the leaders and innovators within Northwest Indian Country and are making their communities better on every level through increasing awareness of Native-led initiatives.

The Potlatch Fund Board of Directors and Staff raise their hands up to the 2015 Spring Grantees; and in the spirit of the potlatch, we give thanks and acknowledgement to the funding sources that made these awards possible.

- Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

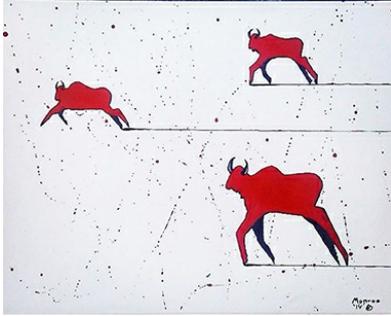

- Two foundations that wish to remain anonymous
- An anonymous donor
- Contributions made in conjunction with our 2014 Gala
- Proceeds from our 2014 Silent Auction, and

Donations from people just like you - people who are invested in Northwest Indian Country.

Thank you!

The Fundraising Gala Silent Auction is an excellent opportunity for Native artists to showcase their work to over 500 people that attend the event. The Gala is scheduled for November 7, 2015 at the Tulalip Resort Casino. This premiere event raises the profile of Tribal communities, Native organizations, and Native artists throughout the Northwest. We invite you to be a part of this annual event and prepare an art piece to be auctioned in support of other Native artists located throughout Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and Montana.

For Native artists that choose to donate to the silent auction, a new opportunity to profile you and your work is available in upcoming issues of our eNewsletter. As our primary goal for the auction is to introduce and promote emerging Native Artists to the community-at-large, the profiles will engage and lead potential art buyers to the Silent Auction website. For more information on providing art or cultural experiences, please use the new email address: auction@potlatchfund.org to contact staff organizing the event or visit this link 2015 Silent Auction. The sooner we receive information about your donation, the longer we have to promote you and your art.
