

INSPIRING THE NATIVE TRADITION OF GIVING

POTLATCH FUND

- October 28, 2014 -

Join us in offering support and healing to the Tulalip and Marysville Communities

As many of you may already know, there was a school shooting on Friday morning at Marysville Pilchuck High School that involved several teens who are members of the Tulalip Tribes. It has been devastating to the community in the days following and for many others in surrounding communities. After speaking with representatives from the Tulalip Tribes to offer our profound condolences and words of comfort, Potlatch Fund will move forward with holding our Gala on Saturday, November 1st. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Tulalip Tribal community, Marysville community, Marysville-Pilchuck High School student body, and all the families impacted by this terrible tragedy.

During our gala, we wish to respectfully acknowledge this tragic loss of life and offer healing to those affected. While we have traditionally had the Tulalip drummers open our event in song, we wish instead to offer them and the rest of the Tribal community a healing song as a way of recognizing the tragedy and offering our prayers to those who have passed, those still in critical care, and those who are struggling to make sense of the aftermath.

We will also offer the opportunity for all those who have lost loved ones over the past year to pin those names on our memorial blanket, which will be followed by a moment of silence to honor all those who have passed on and joined our ancestors.

Cohort Model of Capacity Building

2015: Call for Participation

14 Nonprofit Management Cohort

Potlatch Fund's Capacity Building Program 2014 Cohorts included 25 individuals representing 14 nonprofit organizations. We are recruiting for the 2015 Native Arts Cohort and 2015 Nonprofit Management Cohort learning programs. The selected Nonprofit Management Cohort participants will convene in person and via
