over 500 attendees, the Potlatch Fund Gala raises the profile of Native communities, organizations, and artists throughout the Northwest.

Our primary goal for the silent auction is to introduce and promote emerging Native Artists to the larger community. As such Native artists who submit a piece, or experience, for the silent auction will be invited to attend the networking reception - providing participating artists with marketing and networking opportunities. Artists will also be encouraged to market themselves by placing business cards and a single stack of letter sized promotional sheets next to their piece.
